

HOW CAN THE SCHMIDT LAW FIRM HELP YOU WITH YOUR AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT CASE OR AUTOMOBILE COLLISION CASE?

Our lawyers are committed to the following when we undertake representing you in your automobile accident or collision case:

- Our attorneys will meet with you face to face to develop a relationship and make sure that we fully understand all the facets of your case and understand the cause of the accident and damages suffered in the accident.
- Establish liability by preserving evidence, examining the crash site, taking photographs of the crash site and vehicles involved in the accident and interviewing witnesses to the accident and retaining and interviewing all necessary experts involved in your case.
- Ensure you receive the proper medical care for your injuries and stay in touch with you and your medical providers as you recover from your injuries.
- Hire necessary experts that are required to prove special damages in certain cases.
- Help you understand the law, including statutes of limitations for your case.
- Collect the necessary medical records and help you document your injuries properly so that you receive full compensation.
- Help you understand your damages including but not limited to the following: current and future medical bills, current and future loss of income, physical impairment, scars and disfigurement, damages for impact on your quality of life, transportation expenses, costs of care expenses, loss of consortium expenses, and overall pain and suffering, and when someone tragically loses their life we will pursue wrongful death and hedonic damages.
- Further, we will seek punitive damages in certain cases where the person causing the injuries acted with malicious intent. For example, punitive damages may be warranted if a person causing injuries is legally intoxicated while operating a vehicle.
- Our firm is committed to effectively negotiating a fair settlement with insurance companies that takes into consideration all of your damages that you have suffered.
- Aggressively litigate your case in front of a jury when the insurance company refuses to pay you what you deserve for your damages.
